To Become a Graceful Rider

The first need is a good wheel. We would suggest a "Victor"—for we know that not only to be good, but THE BEST wheel extant for beauty, speed, endurance and perfect satisfaction. Having got the wheel, the next important factor for the learner is a good—careful—patient—strong—GENTLEMAN.

Our instructor is a gentleman thoroughly acquainted with bicycles and the requirements of bicycle riding. He is ever on the alert for the safety of his pupils, and since they have passed through his course of instruction they have perfect confidence in themselves, and carry themselves with a graceful and dignified manner. Again, we would certainly prefer learning in an exterior school, where you are not cramped for room, and have consequently to make many unnecessary short turns and zig-zags, after causing falls, which in our school is obviated.

Under our system of instruction it is seldom that more than two or four lessons are required, so that our pupils are not only taught quickly and thoroughly, but with few of the discomforts which attend an indoor riding school.

Should your friends be interested in this matter we shall appreciate a word to them, and at all times extend to you a cordial invitation to visit us.

SAW HER PICK A POCKET

Beautiful young Woman Arrested by Detectives.

BELIEVED TO BE AN EXPERT

Detectives Were on Her Trail and Followed Her From Store to Store for Evidence—She Gives the Name of Viola Link of Cincinnati and Says She Is Married.

Viola Link, a girl whose beauty of face and charm of manner have drawn suspicion for three months, was arrested last night on the charge of being a pickpocket.

The detective work on this case was performed by Detective Rhodes of the Central office, and the arrest was made by Rhodes and Policeman Schuyler of the First precinct.

The young woman spent most of the night in tears, despite the consolation which was extended by her reputed husband and Matron Pennington.

It is believed that the arrest of this woman will clear up a number of the pocket-picking cases which have been reported from the big stores during the last three months, and which have caused the detective bureau considerable trouble.

Mrs. Benson, No. 215 East Capitol street, and Miss Fannie J. Hall, No. 717 Tenth street northwest, reported yesterday afternoon to the manager of the Boston House that their pockets had been picked. The reports were at different times, though with an interval of but a few minutes between them.

THIS WAS THE CLUE.

Mrs. Benson stated that her purse contained $12 in cash. Miss Hall said her purse contained $5 in paper money, some coins, a check for $25, a silver knife, and a gold toothpick.

Detective headquarters was communicated with and Detective Rhodes detailed on the case.

Rhodes secured a description of the woman who was suspected and learned that she had left the store. He then picked up the trail and overhauled the suspect at Market Space and Eighth street. The woman entered Kamm's store. Policeman Schuyler covered the entrance to the present escape and Rhodes entered the store.

He saw the woman he was "foxing" run her hand into the pocket of an old woman, whose name was not learned. The attention of a floor walker was called to this, but upon being interviewed the old woman claimed to have lost nothing.

The suspect purchased a pair of gloves and left. She then entered Perry's store, but continued to crime. Then she went back to the Boston House, hesitated at the door and did not enter. Her next move was to a restaurant at the corner of Tenth and F streets.

MADE THE ARREST.

Rhodes and Schuyler followed and occupied a table in an adjoining room. When the suspect reached the street she was arrested. She accompanied the officers to the station, gave her name as Viola Link and her age as thirty-four.

She said she came from Cincinnati two months ago, and with her husband occupied a room on H street near Eleventh. Her husband was a traveling salesman for a Cincinnati firm but had lost his position.

On being searched two empty pocket books were found in her hand, and the silver knife which was found at the late last night and had an affecting interview with his wife.

The prisoner is pretty, five feet five inches tall, weighs 120 pounds, good carriage and easy movement.

Munyon's Cures for the Many and Varied Diseases Sold by All Druggists—Mostly for 25 Cents Per Vial.

If You Have Any Complication or Need the Advice of a Physician Call and Consult Prof. Munyon's Doctors Free of Charge.

Of the vast number of patients who have, during the past few weeks, called at the office of Prof. Munyon, many have acknowledged their doubt of the curative powers of his remedies, and brought face to the fact in the person of some friend who has been cured of some disease, after trying in vain every other remedy, only to again obtain no relief, is a positive proof that these remedies are being adopted as a standard remedy, even by those who have heretofore insisted upon doing as their grandfathers did a hundred years ago.

This is an age of progress, and all bigotry, prejudice, and foggyism must give way to modern medical science. Why do people insist upon filling their system with large doses of poisonous drugs when their only action is to tear down the general system instead of building it up?

There is a remedy for every disease, and Prof. Munyon has discovered it: with his remedies any one may doctor themselves. If they have a complication of troubles or need the advice of a physician no one should hesitate to call at his office, where he has a corps of physicians in attendance daily to advise people of their ailments, and just what to do to get well. Not one cent will be charged for the fullest examination they can make for you.

Prof. Munyon's office, 718 Fourteenth street northwest, open daily, 9 to 5; Sundays, 10 to 12; also, Monday and Thursday evenings, 6 to 8, when his specialists can be consulted on all diseases free of charge.

IS TOO ILL TO BE JAILED

Gilmore Woman Sent to Providence Hospital.

HER CONDITION SERIOUS

Jail Sentence Imposed Was Thoroughly Frivolous—The Division—Houses Are Closed Up and Their Inmates Preparing to Leave the City—Tilford and Ferguson Cases Next.

Instead of a cot in the jail, Willie Gilmore, who was yesterday sentenced to imprisonment, rests in a clean bed at Providence Hospital.

Late yesterday afternoon after the report in the Evening Times of the woman's sentence and her subsequent fit of hysteria, was confirmed, Judge Miller sent for her regular physician, Dr. H. L. E. Johnson, to ascertain whether incarceration in jail for the prescribed period of twenty days would prove dangerous or not.

Dr. Johnson was not at his office, and after a tedious wait of over two hours, he was finally located and came to the court at 5 o'clock, when he met Judge Miller in the office of Assistant District Attorney Pugh.

TOO ILL FOR PRISON.

The Gilmore woman was in one of the worst cases of hysteria ever known together as an improvised bed. Dr. Johnson visited her and returned to Judge Miller and assured him that to send the woman to jail in her present condition would menace her life.

On that statement his honor decided to commit her to a hospital. The woman requested permission to be allowed an hour in which to obtain money to pay her fine. A hack was secured and in company with two bailiffs she drove to her home, returning with the amount. The carriage then carried her to Providence Hospital, where she was entered as a pay patient.

FATE OF THE OTHERS.

On her recovery, certified by the resident physician of the hospital, she will be arraigned in court and returned to jail for twenty days, as directed by the judge.

Grace Ferguson and Lottie Tilford will be tried on Tuesday. If the Gilmore case is any precedent they will certainly feel the restrictions of prison life.

The jail sentence imposed yesterday by Judge Miller upon "Willie" Gilmore has had its effect on the inmates of the scarlet quarter.

The other women who were raided at the same time and who will have their trial on Tuesday next were the most interested in the outcome of the trial yesterday. They had been led to believe that only a heavy fine would be imposed and had made preparations with that end in view. When the news came that a jail sentence had been imposed their fears were renewed. Both Ferguson and Tilford were notified last night to appear in court Tuesday morning.

NOT ENTIRELY UNEXPECTED.

That the sentence in the Gilmore case was not wholly unexpected by the attorneys for the defense was evidenced by the fact that they withdrew their motion for a new trial and threw their clients on the mercy of the court. This, together with the medical testimony introduced in the case, they hoped would influence Judge Miller to impose a heavy fine and a warning that a jail sentence would be imposed should the defendant appear before him again.

The effect of the sentence on the other inmates of the station was plainly evidenced last night. The entire place was as quiet as though it were uninhabited, and several of the houses had the appearance of being closed.

Gilmore's home remained closed all night. The shutters were up, and there was no sign of life about the place.

During the evening came to the ears of the police that there were two houses which were still selling liquor. Sergeant Shilling and Officers Kilmarin and Hooper made them a visit, but could find no evidence that the law was being violated in that respect. They made a thorough search of the premises, but found no liquor of any description.

MORE RAIDS REMOVED.

The inmates were very much surprised at the visit of the officers, and their distress was evident.

A rumor spread that another series of
